

Resource 1 - Kakaha Pā/WaiweraResource 2 - Wenderholm

1) At her birth she was clutching a blood clot which in the eyes of her mother meant a long and victorious life, hence Wikitoria.

1) c)

2) d)

2) a)

3) Eliza

3) To spread christianity to Māori.

4) d)

4) b)

5) b)

5) c)

6) The English language (of the pākehā) and how to fish.

6) b)

7) A musket, a comb, a dress, a mirror, a baby (Wikitoria)

7) Wikitoria, Te Hemera and Governor Hobson

8) She was very good at catching birds in the traps she set.

8) The Crown.

9) During summer she deliberately tried to darken her skin to look more like her mother.

9) That the waters that she was born into, and died in, had a magical effect on her, giving her new life.

10) To speak to, and negotiate with, both Māori and pākehā by understanding and speaking both languages.

10) Various but probably it was because these were the warriors that had taken the lives of her tribe so she did not give them any dignity in death.

11) They traded flax, potatoes, kumara, pigs and three week marriages.

11) Various - share with a friend or your teacher.

12) Because Āhere deliberately chose to give birth in the waters that flowed from Papatūānuku, earth mother.

New Words: Bestowed means to give a gift or honor.

New Words: Womb means the organ in a female that houses the young before birth.

Dissipated means to slowly disappear

Perished means death.

Forged means to create something strong and successful

Nestled means to settle or lie comfortably between or in something.

Intimacy means a close friendship or familiarity.

Remnants means a part that remains or is leftover.

Conspiratorial means a relationship or meeting that is secretive

Behest means at the request or orders of another.

Negotiate means to obtain or bring about something via discussion.

Influential means having great influence

Anguish means severe mental or physical suffering

Exotic means not from the land where they are currently.

Hollow means words without real significance or meaning

Compulsory means required by law.

Parts of Speech: NounsParts of Speech: Adjectives

a) Nest

a) Warrior's

b) Hand

b) Passionate

c) Ship

c) Thick