

Resource 1 - Prologue - Wikitoria	Resource 2 - Kakaha Pā
1) b)	1) c)
2) a)	2) b)
3) A fish.	3) Means to snare birds
4) b)	4) c)
5) c)	5) a)
6) The Doctor.	6) Defensive ditches and wooden palisades
7) She was shocked as seen by the expression on her face and provided her daughter comforting words.	7) Providing feathers for the making of korowai and the birds being used as a food source.
8) Revenge	8) That was the length of time that Wikitoria's mother was onshore for.
9) The reason was for her to become a go-between, a girl who could communicate both languages and help shape the country.	9) On a headland between two rivers, the Puhoi and the Waiwera.
10) Various - check with your teacher. A good answer could be that she would be able to tell history to both Māori and pakehā so that they can build a country together.	10)
New Words: Cradled means to hold gently, protectively	New Words: Flowed means to go from one place to another in a steady stream, usually in large numbers.
Immortal means living forever, not dying.	Privilege means a special right.
Soothe means to relieve or ease pain	Speckled means covered in small spots or patches of colour.
Sustained means to continue without interruption	Hollow means without value or significance.
Insight means to gain an accurate and deep understanding	Slump means to sit, lean or fall heavily and limply.
Parts of Speech: Nouns	Parts of Speech: Adjectives
a) Tree	a) Shallow
b) Water	b) Deep
c) Bullet, air	c) Whaling